Advisor

Rob Morin is a 12 year resident of GA with roots in NJ, Chicago and CT. Rob recently retired following a near 30 year career within the HCM industry, where he most recently served as an Executive Vice President and Corporate Officer at Paychex. Rob currently serves as the President of Work2Win Capital Group.

Rob lives in Suwanee with his wife, Jennifer, and their Brady Bunch crew of 6, ranging in ages from 25 to 8. When not busy career coaching his three adult sons, or unofficially officiating at his daughter's lacrosse games, Rob has a passion for community service and lots of energy to share. Rob is honored to have been tapped by Teresa to aid and assist in this crucial crusade to prevent future suicides around the world.

Rob is delighted to serve LRJ's Board.
