

Amanda Peterson Johnson

MS, LAMFT

EXPERIENCE & SPECIALIZATIONS:

Amanda is currently working in private practice in the Buckhead area of Atlanta. She primarily works with adolescents/families and couples to foster healthy relationships and improve coping with anxiety, depression, life transitions, and grief.

Amanda has been with LRJ since November 2017 as a lead presenter and curriculum specialist.

EDUCATION:

BS in Family & Child Sciences and Psychology from Florida State University and MS in Marriage & Family Therapy from Auburn University

CREDENTIALS:

Licensed Associate Marriage and Family Therapist