

Corrine Wolfe

M.S., HS-BCP, NCC

EXPERIENCE & SPECIALIZATIONS:

Experience & Specializations: Corrine is an active outpatient therapist with children and adolescents in a community clinic. She is certified in Parent Child Interaction Therapy (PCIT) through PCIT International. The majority of her counseling work is with ages two to 7 years old.

Corrine has been a presenter with the LRJ Foundation since fall 2018.

EDUCATION:

BS in Counseling and Human Services from University of Scranton; MS in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from University of Scranton.

CREDENTIALS:

National Counselor Certification, Human Services Board Certified Practitioner