

Dana Fortunato

MS, NCC

EXPERIENCE & SPECIALIZATIONS:

Dana previously worked at United Neighborhood Centers of NEPA as a Youth Program Coordinator and as a Mental Health Counselor at Keystone College. She is currently a Mental Health Professional in a local high school, serving through the Community and School Based Behavioral Health program.

Dana has been a presenter with the LRJ Foundation since the Fall of 2016.

EDUCATION:

BA in Elementary Education from Marywood University; MSc in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from the University of Scranton

CREDENTIALS:

National Counselor Certification