

Joseph Peluso

President, DMD

Joe grew up in Columbus, GA as a son of Italian restaurateurs. His grandfather, a decorated and retired Navy corpsman, began in the restaurant business in the mid-1960's and later his father continued the tradition for 40 years.

A native of Florida, Joe graduated from Columbus College (later Cols State Univ) with a BBA and worked in PC applications development from 1987-1994. He later completed his DMD at the Medical College of Georgia (now Dental College of Georgia) in 1998. Joe has been in practice for 23 years focusing on business development and family cosmetic care.

Joe makes volunteerism and outreach a focal point of his personal and professional work. He has been blessed to support various organizations both locally and internationally. His medical travel to South America is a highlight of his professional journey and now most recently supporting LRJ through various endeavors.

EDUCATION:

Bachelor's in Business Administration, Minor in Chemistry (1989)
Columbus State University, Columbus GA

Doctorate in Medical Dentistry (1998)
Medical College of Georgia, Augusta GA