

Loren D. Caparo

Vice President

Serves as technical advisor over accounts such as Amazon, Barnes & Noble and Walmart.

Active member of St. Eulalias parish in Elmhurst, Pa. Eucharist minister, director of church picnic as well as monthly church breakfast for past 10 years.

Board member of the Elmhurst Township Sewer Authority. Currently hold DEP certification for waste water treatment plant operator. Operate and monitor townships waste water on weekends to ensure environmental protection and healthy waterways in the area.

Active Freemason, Lodge #504. Have presented scholarships for North Pocono high school students at awards banquets. Conducted numerous dinners and outings to raise monies for philanthropy.

EDUCATION:

Bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering from Pennsylvania State University. Currently working as facility director for WWNorton and Company c/o National book Company.