

Ajay Athota

Intern, Junior at Innovation Academy

Ajay is a rising senior at Innovation Academy, currently pursuing a healthcare pathway with a keen interest in mental wellness and suicide prevention. Ajay has incredible experience as a former volunteer at Wellstar Hospital as a surgical technologist, including CPR and OSHA certifications that demonstrate a commitment to ensuring a safe and healthy environment for all individuals.

Ajay is eager to utilize his skills and passion for healthcare to contribute to this organization's cause. He believes that interning with the LRJ Foundation would provide an excellent opportunity to gain valuable experience, enhance his knowledge, and make a positive impact in the community.
